AUTUMN SONG.

Poetry from the German of Tieck.

Music by W. W. Gilchrist.

Allegretto. (♩ - 138.) grazioso

A lit - tle bird flew
I list - ened long un - o'er the lea..... And in the sun - shine mer - ri - ly.

to the lay..... I felt so sad, I felt so gay.

It sang so sweet - ly and so clear..... "Fare - well, I fly far,
With sor - rows joys, with pleas - ures woes..... My breast al - tern - ate far from here. Fare - well, Fare - well,..... Fare - well, I fly far, sank and rose. Rends pain or joy,..... Rends pain or joy my far from here. A - way! a - way! this ver - y day.

heart in twain? Rends pain or joy my heart in twain?

 But 'gain the sun shone o'er the lea.....The lit - tle bird flew back to me,

It saw mine eyes suf-fused with tears..... And sang True love no win-ter fears. No!

no..... no! no..... no no! Its spring shall ev-er glow. No!

no..... No! no..... no no no no no no no no! Its spring shall
